CLARKSVILLE HOUSING AUTHORITY
MINUTES OF PUBLIC HEARING
TENANT REQUESTS FOR AGENCY & ANNUAL PLAN
01/14/2010

The meeting was called to order at 2:00 p.m. The following tenants were in attendance: C. Barker, C. Owens, S. Genemetes, L. Leggore-Metzger, A. Hardcastle, C. Wagner, J. Eggen, and S. Cochran.

Staff Present: Executive Director Metta Holman, Maintenance Supervisor Wayne Anglin, MOD Coordinator/Inspector Charlie Groskopf and Administrative Assistant Sara Stucky.

Executive Director Holman began the meeting by welcoming everyone and advised those present the purpose of the meeting was to discuss needs for the 2010 Annual Plan and Five-Year Agency Plan – (Capital Fund Program). Executive Director Holman asked the tenants to tell her what they wanted, what projects did they see a need for? The response varied, floor replacement was discussed, painting was discussed; even unit insulation was discussed (Maintenance Supervisor Anglin explained how the units were built which answered the insulation questions). Tenants continued with suggestions, including the possibility of building a pavilion near the playground on Poplar Circle. Executive Director Holman then read from the Five-Year Plan the projects listed which covered everything tenants were discussing.

Tenants were thankful for the recent kitchen remodeling work, new bathroom heaters, and they also expressed their appreciation for the new air filters that were being used. Holman explained the Maintenance Supervisor Anglin was responsible for selecting the filters and that the plan was to continue using this type filter.

At this time, Executive Director Holman distributed copies of proposed maintenance charges – which include a few increases. Tenants inquired about what constitutes “a charge” and Executive Director Holman assured tenants that normal wear and tear replacement is not something that is normally charged to a tenant.

Executive Director Holman continued with the meeting by discussing the “ACOP” (Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy). The Board of Commissioners will be asked to approve the amendment of the ACOP to include VAWA (Violence Against Women Act). Executive Director Holman explained what the Act covered and that the CHA began using this Act as directed by HUD; however, the ACOP needs to be “officially” amended to include it.

Other discussed topics include Christmas lights, preparation for winter weather in regards to pipes freezing, tenant food bank, responsibilities of Resident Council, lawn care and leaf blower, re-painting parking space signage, security signage at gazebo and playground on Poplar Circle.

Executive Director Holman reminded the tenants that the CHA has tried to protect their living areas with fencing to prevent unnecessary foot traffic – as well as preventing trash from blowing into yards. She continued by saying staff has tried to meet our mission statement of providing decent housing, a suitable living environment and to expand economic opportunities. Resident Council Vice-President Carol Barker reminded tenants to call the office any time they have questions and/or complaints. Executive Director Holman asked that tenants keep her advised of any situations which might need her attention and to please keep in mind that even though it may not look like any changes have been made, “ALL” reports are checked.

Resident Council Meeting – President Arnola Collins was absent, Resident Council Vice-President Carol Barker and Secretary Sharon Cochran were present and conducted the meeting. After reviewing all documents and listening to all discussion, the Resident Council approved the Agency Plan and Five-Year Plan.

With no further business, the public hearing was closed.
